Considering this, she used to be rather introverted, but that is slowly changing.

She's a small girl with long, straight, black hair
Since Iris is a vampire, I thought that I had to give her blond hair, so I gave Ayafuji an opposite design (Or more simply, I like straight hair)

Artist's Notes

When I thought about vampires, I instantly pictured someone with blonde hair and blue eyes~ It was a pretty simplistic idea At first I wanted her to be the main character, so I gave her an Ahoge* Since she doesn't look like a dumb character, sometimes I forget to draw it and then have to draw it in a hurry This cowlick is a part of her

*Kind of a cowlick, literally "idiot hair" See more http://tvtropes.org/pmwiki/pmwiki.php/Main/IdiotHair
